

AQA A Level Law

Subject Content

Studying A-Level Law will give you an understanding of the role of Law in today's society and raise your awareness of the rights and responsibilities of individuals. You will learn how legal rules apply in real life by reading case law and answering hypothetical scenarios. Additional to this you will also study concepts such as justice, morality and fault including theorist such as Karl Marx / Jeremy Bentham, which has cross curricular potential, enhancing your depth of knowledge. By choosing Law this will develop your analytical ability, decision making, critical thinking and problem solving skills. All these skills are highly sought after by higher education and employers.

How it's assessed

Subject Content and how it is assessed: Each 2 hour paper consist of a mixture of multiple choice, Short answers, essays and scenarios. (Ranging from 1 mark to 30 marks)

Paper 1 - 100 marks

25% English Legal System

75% Criminal Law

Paper 2 - 100 marks

25% English Legal System

75% Tort Law

Paper 3 - 100 marks

25% English legal system

75% Human Rights